

CRIMINAL JUSTICE APPLICATION WORKSHOP

All applicants applying for funding in the Criminal Justice (CJ) funding programs listed below are required to attend an application workshop conducted by the Coastal Bend Council of Governments (CBCOG) CJ staff. Attendees must be an active employee or official from the division or unit of the agency applying for funding.

- Criminal Justice Grant Program
- General Victim Assistance Grant Program
- Juvenile Justice & Truancy Prevention Grant Program
- Violence Against Women Justice and Training Program

Applicants applying for a continuing project have the option to attend in person or via Zoom. All first-time applicants should attend in person and are asked to bring a laptop for on-hands training.

Per CBCOG policies and bylaws - Failure to attend a workshop or have a qualified individual attend a workshop will result in the grant application receiving a 20-point deduction on the score sheet.
